NOTICE OF PENDENCY

Plaintiff files this Notice of Pendency regarding new adjudications initiated by the U.S. government against Defendant, Apple Inc, on behalf of the Plaintiff.

Prior Notices of Pendency were filed to this court by the Plaintiff on Aug. 27 2024 (Dkt. 100) and Sept. 30 2024 (Dkt. 111) regarding the U.S. Dept. of Labor environmental whistleblower adjudication and the U.S. NLRB complaint against Defendant over Apple's work rules, confidentiality policies, and surveillance practices, respectively.

Following Plaintiff's most recent Notice (Dkt. 111), a new lawsuit was filed by the U.S. NLRB against the Defendant [\[Exhibit A\]](#), Defendant filed their Answers to both U.S. NLRB complaints, [\[Exhibit B & Exhibit C\]](#), and the prior pending U.S. NLRB hearing over Apple's U.S. confidentiality policies and surveillance practices was then cancelled due to settlement discussions. [\[Exhibit D\]](#).

Plaintiff also suggests tracking the pending environmental agency enforcement actions related to Plaintiff's complaints about 3250 Scott Blvd due to the potential for civil issue preclusion. In addition to the U.S. EPA RCRA investigation and enforcement actions, the BAAQMD has now also cited the defendant for at least six violations of state air quality laws. [\[Exhibit F\]](#). These violations were based on an inspection which was initiated due to a formal complaint filed by the Plaintiff to CARB with a copy of the U.S. EPA's RCRA enforcement and compliance report. [\[Exhibit E\]](#). [Dkts. 86, 86-1, & 95].

U.S. NLRB, UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

The complaints were filed and ALJ hearings scheduled pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 151 et seq. and 29 C.F.R. § 102.15. Congress prescribed the hearing to be formal adjudication governed by 5 U.S.C. §§ 554, 556, and 557. The hearing is scheduled to be held before an administrative law judge of the National Labor Relations Board, located at the Spring Street U.S. Court House in Los Angeles, California.

Gjovik is self-represented and plans to actively participate in the adjudicatory proceedings. Under NLRA regulations, she is allowed to file briefs and motions, introduce evidence, and question witnesses. 29 C.F.R. Part 101, et seq.

The representative for Apple Inc as the Respondent in the NLRB proceeding is Tim Cook, Chief Executive Officer. Apple is currently represented by Morgan, Lewis, & Bockius.

NLRB case no. 32-CA-284428 challenges many of the same policies that Gjovik has concurrently challenged under California Labor Code §§ 96(k), 98.7, 232, 232.5, 6310, 6377, 1101-1102, and 1102.5 in this lawsuit.

NLRB case no.'s 282142 & 283161 challenge many of the same questions of fact, and related questions of law, that Gjovik has concurrently challenged under the same California Labor Codes as well the Termination in Violation of Public Policy Tamney claim.

If the NLRB must seek court assistance to enforce Orders, the agency must petition a U.S. District Court, per 29 C.F.R. § 101.14. Appeals of NLRB agency decisions are directed to a Circuit Court of Appeals. In this case, appeals would go to the Ninth Circuit, and enforcement challenges are most likely to be filed in a California U.S. District Court.

U.S. DEPT. OF LABOR, ENV. WHISTLEBLOWER

The parties are awaiting a decision, or communication for further briefing or oral arguments, from the U.S. Dept. of Labor Administrative Review Board.

This adjudication is not a state or federal Court proceeding, as described under Civil. L.R. 3-13, however it may present itself for appellate review in this Court in the near future, either by appeal of Plaintiff or Defendant. Plaintiff also requested that ARB consider if, after correcting the mistakes of law, that she may be allowed to “kick out” the claim for its de novo hearing within this federal civil lawsuit, if this Court also approves.

There have only been a handful of CERCLA whistleblower retaliation cases under 42 U.S.C. § 9610 since the law was enacted in the 1980s, so there is not much procedural precedent.

The answer must be filed electronically through the Agency's website. To file electronically, go to www.nlr.gov, click on E-File Documents, enter the NLRB Case Number, and follow the detailed instructions. Responsibility for the receipt and usability of the answer rests exclusively upon the sender. Unless notification on the Agency's website informs users that the Agency's E-Filing system is officially determined to be in technical failure because it is unable to receive documents for a continuous period of more than 2 hours after 12:00 noon (Eastern Time) on the due date for filing, a failure to timely file the answer will not be excused on the basis that the transmission could not be accomplished because the Agency's website was off-line or unavailable for some other reason. The Board's Rules and Regulations require that an answer be signed by counsel or non-attorney representative for represented parties or by the party if not represented. See Section 102.21. If the answer being filed electronically is a pdf document containing the required signature, no paper copies of the answer need to be transmitted to the Regional Office. However, if the electronic version of an answer to a consolidated complaint is not a pdf file containing the required signature, then the E-filing rules require that such answer containing the required signature continue to be submitted to the Regional Office by traditional means within three (3) business days after the date of electronic filing. Service of the answer on each of the other parties must still be accomplished by means allowed under the Board's Rules and Regulations. The answer may not be filed by facsimile transmission. If no answer is filed, or if an answer is filed untimely, the Board may find, pursuant to a Motion for Default Judgment, that the allegations in the consolidated complaint are true.

Procedures in NLRB Unfair Labor Practice Hearings

The attached complaint has scheduled a hearing that will be conducted by an administrative law judge (ALJ) of the National Labor Relations Board who will be an independent, impartial finder of facts and applicable law. You may be represented at this hearing by an attorney or other representative. If you are not currently represented by an attorney, and wish to have one represent you at the hearing, you should make such arrangements as soon as possible. A more complete description of the hearing process and the ALJ's role may be found at Sections 102.34, 102.35, and 102.45 of the Board's Rules and Regulations. The Board's Rules and regulations are available at the following link: www.nlr.gov/sites/default/files/attachments/basic-page/node-1717/rules\_and\_regs\_part\_102.pdf.

The NLRB allows you to file certain documents electronically and you are encouraged to do so because it ensures that your government resources are used efficiently. To e-file go to the NLRB's website at www.nlr.gov, click on "e-file documents," enter the 10-digit case number on the complaint (the first number if there is more than one), and follow the prompts. You will receive a confirmation number and an e-mail notification that the documents were successfully filed.

Although this matter is set for trial, this does not mean that this matter cannot be resolved through a settlement agreement. The NLRB recognizes that adjustments or settlements consistent with the policies of the National Labor Relations Act reduce government expenditures and promote amity in labor relations and encourages the parties to engage in settlement efforts.

I. BEFORE THE HEARING

The rules pertaining to the Board's pre-hearing procedures, including rules concerning filing an answer, requesting a postponement, filing other motions, and obtaining subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of documents from other parties, may be found at Sections 102.20 through 102.32 of the Board's Rules and Regulations. In addition, you should be aware of the following:

- Special Needs: If you or any of the witnesses you wish to have testify at the hearing have special needs and require auxiliary aids to participate in the hearing, you should notify the Regional Director as soon as possible and request the necessary assistance. Assistance will be provided to persons who have handicaps falling within the provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and 29 C.F.R. 100.603.
- Pre-hearing Conference: One or more weeks before the hearing, the ALJ may conduct a telephonic prehearing conference with the parties. During the conference, the ALJ will explore whether the case may be settled, discuss the issues to be litigated and any logistical issues related to the hearing, and attempt to resolve or narrow outstanding issues, such as disputes relating to subpoenaed witnesses and documents. This conference is usually not recorded, but during the hearing the ALJ or the parties sometimes refer to discussions at the pre-hearing conference. You do not have to wait until the prehearing conference to meet with the other parties to discuss settling this case or any other issues.

II. DURING THE HEARING

The rules pertaining to the Board's hearing procedures are found at Sections 102.34 through 102.43 of the Board's Rules and Regulations. Please note in particular the following:

- Witnesses and Evidence: At the hearing, you will have the right to call, examine, and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce into the record documents and other evidence.
- Exhibits: Each exhibit offered in evidence must be provided in duplicate to the court reporter and a copy of each of each exhibit should be supplied to the ALJ and each party when the exhibit is offered in evidence. If a copy of any exhibit is not available when the original is received, it will be the responsibility of the party offering such exhibit to submit the copy to the ALJ before the close of hearing. If a copy is not submitted, and the filing has not been waived by the ALJ, any ruling receiving the exhibit may be rescinded and the exhibit rejected.

- Transcripts: An official court reporter will make the only official transcript of the proceedings, and all citations in briefs and arguments must refer to the official record. The Board will not certify any transcript other than the official transcript for use in any court litigation. Proposed corrections of the transcript should be submitted, either by way of stipulation or motion, to the ALJ for approval. Everything said at the hearing while the hearing is in session will be recorded by the official reporter unless the ALJ specifically directs off-the-record discussion. If any party wishes to make off-the-record statements, a request to go off the record should be directed to the ALJ.
- Oral Argument: You are entitled, on request, to a reasonable period of time at the close of the hearing for oral argument, which shall be included in the transcript of the hearing. Alternatively, the ALJ may ask for oral argument if, at the close of the hearing, if it is believed that such argument would be beneficial to the understanding of the contentions of the parties and the factual issues involved.

(a) Under the section heading “The Way We Do Business Worldwide,” the BCP states, inter alia:

Your Responsibilities and Obligation to Take Action

Everything we do is a reflection of Apple. We expect you to:

- Follow the Policy. Comply with the letter and spirit of Apple’s Business Conduct Policy and all applicable legal requirements.

- Speak up. If you see or hear of any violation of Apple’s Business Conduct Policy, other Apple policies, or legal or regulatory requirements, you must notify either your manager, People Team, Legal, or Business Conduct.
- Use good judgment and ask questions. Apply Apple’s principles of business conduct, and review our policies and legal requirements. When in doubt about how to proceed, discuss it with your manager, your People Business Partner, Legal, or Business Conduct. Any failure to comply with Apple’s Business Conduct Policy—or failure to report a violation—may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

You are also required to fully cooperate in any Apple investigation, and keep any information shared with you confidential to safeguard the integrity of the investigation.

(b) Under the section heading “The Way We Do Business Worldwide,” the

2020 BCP further states:

Your Rights as an Employee

While we expect employees to follow the Business Conduct Policy, nothing in this Policy should be interpreted as being restrictive of your right to speak freely about your wages, hours, or working conditions.

In the August 2022 BCP, this subsection was modified to read as follows:

Your Rights as an Employee

You are permitted to speak freely about your wages, hours, and working conditions, including information about harassment, discrimination, or any other conduct you have reason to believe is unlawful, and nothing in this Policy, or any Apple policy, should be interpreted as being restrictive of your right to do so.

(c) Under the section heading “Protecting Apple,” the BCP states: Protecting

Apple’s Assets and Information

You play a key role in helping us protect Apple. Assets include Apple’s proprietary information (such as intellectual property, confidential business plans, unannounced product plans, sales and marketing strategies, and other trade secrets), as well as physical assets such as cash, equipment, supplies and product inventory.

- Watch what you say. Being aware of where you are, who is around you, and what they might see or overhear is an important way we all protect Apple's secrets.
- Protect our assets. Keep track of the assets and information Apple has entrusted you, and prevent loss, misuse, waste, or theft.
- Set an example. Model behavior that protects our assets and information at all times.

(d) Under the section heading "Protecting Apple," the BCP further states:

Apple Confidential Information

One of our greatest assets is information about our products and services, including future product offerings. Never disclose confidential, operational, financial, trade-secret, or other business information without verifying with your manager whether such disclosure is appropriate. We are very selective when disclosing this type of information to vendors, suppliers, or other third parties, and only do so once a non-disclosure agreement is in place. Even with[in] Apple, confidential information should only be shared on a need-to-know basis. The Intellectual Property Agreement that you signed when you joined Apple outlines your duty to protect our information.

For more information, visit the Global Security website.

(e) Under the section heading "Protecting Apple," the BCP further states:

Non-Disclosure/Confidentiality Agreements

Never share confidential information about Apple's products or services without your manager's approval. When there is a business need to share confidential information with a supplier, vendor, or other third party, never volunteer more than what is necessary to address the business at hand. Any confidential information shared outside Apple should be covered by a non-disclosure/confidentiality agreement (NDA). Contact Legal in your region to obtain an NDA. In the United States, you can find NDA information and support on the Legal website.

(f) Under the section heading "Protecting Apple," the BCP further states:

Accuracy of Records and Reports

Accurate and honest records are critical to meeting our legal, financial, and management obligations. You should ensure that all records and reports, including timecards, customer information, technical and product information, correspondence, and public communications are comprehensive, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable.

Do not misstate facts, omit critical information, or modify records or reports in any way to mislead others, and never assist others in doing so. Intentional manipulation of Apple records is a form of fraud.

(g) Under the section heading “Protecting Apple,” the BCP further states:

Public Speaking and Press Inquiries

All public or outside speaking engagements that relate to Apple’s business or products must be pre-approved by your manager and Corporate Communications. If your request is approved, you may not request or accept any form of personal compensation from the organization that requested your participation, but you may accept reimbursement for incurred expenses. All inquiries from the media, industry, or financial analyst community must be referred to Corporate Communications or Investor Relations.

(h) Under the section heading “Protecting Apple,” the BCP further states:

Publishing Articles

If you want to contribute an article or other type of submission to a publication or blog on a topic that relates to Apple’s business or products or could be seen as a conflict of interest, you must first request approval from Corporate Communications. If your contribution is technical or academic and [relates] to Apple, complete the Academic and Industry-Related Activities Questionnaire to obtain review from Legal and Business Conduct. If your contribution is determined to be a conflict of interest, you will need to get senior vice president approval. For additional information, see the Social Media and Online Communications guidelines.

(i) Under the section heading “Individual Accountability,” the BCP states:

Avoiding Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest is any activity that may damage Apple’s reputation or financial interests, or gives the appearance of impropriety or divided loyalty. Avoid any situation that creates a real or perceived conflict of interest. If you are unsure about a potential conflict, talk to your manager, Business Conduct, or your People Business Partner.

(j) Under the section heading “Individual Accountability,” the BCP further states:

Conflicts of Interest and Outside Activities

You may participate in outside activities, including secondary employment, businesses, inventions, and serving on boards, only if they do not present a conflict of interest and you adhere to the rules set out below.

Apple generally considers an outside activity to be a conflict of interest if it:

- Would require you to disclose or use confidential Apple information.

- Arises from your role in Apple's business relationship with the organization.

(k) Under the sub-heading “Conflicts of Interest and Outside Activities,” the

BCP further states:

Work with your manager and Business Conduct to evaluate a potential conflict of interest. If an outside activity presents a conflict of interest, you must partner with a People Business Partner, and obtain written approval from your manager, Legal (if applicable), and the senior most person reporting to the CEO of both your and any relevant organizations. Contact Business Conduct to assist with Legal review.

(l) Under the sub-heading “Conflicts of Interest and Outside Activities,” the

BCP further states:

Any employee, full or part-time, who is participating in an outside activity, must comply with the following rules. Do not:

Before taking any paid employment outside of Apple, you should notify your manager. Visit the Conflicts of Interest page for more information on what would be considered a conflict.

(n) Under the section heading “Business Integrity,” the BCP states:

Private Employee Information

You should never share a coworker or prospective employee's personal information. This includes information regarding their employment history, personal contact information, compensation, health information, or performance and disciplinary matters. Any Legal or business need-to-know exceptions should be approved by your manager and Legal.

(o) Under the section heading “Business Integrity,” the BCP further states:

(p) Under the section heading “Business Integrity,” the BCP further states:

While limited personal use of Apple equipment and systems is allowed, Apple may monitor equipment and systems. You should not have any expectation about the privacy of content or personal information on Apple systems or networks, including VPN. This is true even if you blog, tweet, write, post, comment, share visual or other media, or otherwise communicate online outside of work — even if you do not identify yourself as an Apple employee. So before you click or tap “send,” keep these guidelines in mind:

- Protect Apple's confidential information. As we conduct business around the world, our competitive strategy requires us to keep Apple's intellectual property and proprietary information confidential. This includes non-public information such as the timing, pricing, and design of Apple products; Apple's overall business performance; and the layout of our stores (including back-of-house areas, which contain competitive business operations information, customer data, sales targets, and other proprietary information).

All Apple employees have an obligation to protect this information. You may have created such information in the course of your everyday work. You may have additionally had access to proprietary information in the course of your work at Apple obtained by third parties including subsidiaries, affiliates, vendors, suppliers, customers, consultants, licensees, and dealers. You are obligated not to disclose any above described proprietary information to any other person or company (other than with Apple's prior consent) or use it for your own benefit. Furthermore you are obligated to have returned to Apple all documents and materials of any kind pertaining to your work at Apple and containing any proprietary information.

Certainly Apple has no desire to prevent you from the lawful exercise of your professional skills. However, any unauthorized disclosure or use of Apple proprietary information in conjunction with your new employment—or otherwise—would be a breach of your agreement with Apple, as well as a violation of the laws relating to the protection of such information. Your obligations continue until such time as the proprietary information is generally available to the public.

If you have any questions regarding the Confidentiality and Intellectual Property Agreement, if you are concerned about the use or disclosure of proprietary information, or if you should find yourself in a position where you are uncertain about whether an idea or invention should have been disclosed to Apple, please promptly contact the Apple IP Transactions Department at [redacted] and we will be pleased to review the matter with you.

ANSWER: Paragraph 12 states a legal conclusion to which no answer is required. To the extent a response is required, Apple denies each and every allegation of Paragraph 12.

13. The unfair labor practices of Respondent described above affect commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

ANSWER: Paragraph 13 states a legal conclusion to which no answer is required. To the extent a response is required, Apple denies each and every allegation of Paragraph 13.

Any and all remaining allegations contained in the Complaint are denied, along with each and every related legal conclusion.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

1. The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
2. Under a de novo interpretation of the Act, required by Loper Bright v. Raimondo 603 U.S. ___, 144 S. Ct. 2244 (2024), the policy provisions identified in the Complaint are lawful.
3. Under a de novo interpretation of the Act, required by Loper Bright v. Raimondo 603 U.S. ___, 144 S. Ct. 2244 (2024), the policy disclaimers identified in the Complaint, and other similar disclaimers to employees, render the policies identified in the Complaint lawful.
4. The Complaint allegations fail to identify any policy provisions that are unlawful under Stericycle, Inc., 372 NLRB No. 113 (2023), which among other things requires “a particularized analysis of specific rules [and] their language.”
5. The NLRB incorrectly decided Stericycle, Inc., 372 N.L.R.B. No. 113 (Aug. 2, 2023). The standard adopted by the Board in Stericycle is overbroad and ultra vires because it functions as a presumption that policies that do not expressly address Section 7 rights automatically violate the NLRA based on speculative future interference, absent sufficient justification and/or tailoring.

6. The policy provisions at issue in the Complaint are based on legitimate justifications and are properly worded under Stericycle, Inc., 372 NLRB No. 113 (2023), even if that case is valid.

7. Any finding of an unfair labor practice based in whole or in part on speech and/or views, argument, or opinion spoken or disseminated by Apple or managers, supervisors, agents and other persons acting on behalf of Apple (collectively hereinafter referred to as “Apple’s agents” or “its agents”) in any policies, rules, other publications, meetings, one-on-one discussions, or written or other communications, whether in written, electronic, printed, graphic, or visual form which “contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit” is prohibited by NLRA Section 8(c).

8. Any finding of an unfair labor practice based in whole or in part on publications disseminated by Apple or its agents in any meetings, one-on-one discussions, or written or other communications which “contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit” constitutes an unconstitutional infringement on the First Amendment rights of freedom of speech and the right of the people peaceably to assemble. Under the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in Counterman v. Colorado, 600 U.S. 66 (2023), the First Amendment requires that, for regulation of an alleged threat to be constitutionally permitted, it must be a “true threat” and the Government must demonstrate from the context of the statement that the author of the threat acted at least in reckless disregard of whether the subject might actually find it threatening. In this case, the NLRB has failed to plead any of the required elements required under Counterman, and even if it had, it could not prove them. The Board's attempts to regulate Apple's speech therefore exceeds the constitutional limits identified by the Supreme Court in Counterman.

9. No remedy is appropriate as Apple has not engaged in any unfair labor practice. Further, the remedies requested in the Complaint are punitive, inappropriate, non-remedial, violate Apple's freedom of speech rights under the First Amendment, violate the takings clause of the Fifth Amendment, and are beyond the authority of the Board to order.

10. The remedies sought are further punitive, inappropriate, and non-remedial to the extent that they seek the posting and/or circulation of notices to employees outside of the facility where the charge originated.

11. Apple further reserves the right to amend and/or supplement its answers and affirmative defenses.

WHEREFORE, Apple respectfully requests that the Complaint be dismissed in its entirety, with prejudice.

Any and all remaining allegations contained in the Complaint are denied, along with each and every related legal conclusion.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

1. The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
2. Under Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, Gjovik was discharged for cause and no order of the Board may require her reinstatement or the payment to her of any backpay.
3. Gjovik failed to mitigate any alleged damages.
4. Under a de novo interpretation of the Act, required by Loper Bright v. Raimondo, 603 U.S. ___, 144 S. Ct. 2244 (2024), the alleged statements by supervisors or agents of Apple identified in the Complaint are lawful.

5. Under the Takings Clause in the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution, the relief sought in the Complaint, including but not limited to the deprivation of the Respondent's property rights in its own business communication systems, the surrender of those systems for Board agents to use for multiple government-conducted "training sessions", and compensation to an employee who is not entitled to such compensation, is a taking without just compensation.

6. The Complaint interferes with the Respondent's rights under Section 8(c) of the Act and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution generally by forbidding Respondent, and its supervisors and agents from stating their views when Respondent's policies are criticized and even disparaged by employees, from responding to false statements, and from establishing its own internal communications protocols.

7. Any finding of an unfair labor practice based in whole or in part on statements and/or publications disseminated by Apple or its agents in any meetings, one-on-one discussions, or written or other communications which "contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit" constitutes an unconstitutional infringement on the First Amendment rights of freedom of speech and the right of the people peaceably to assemble. Under the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Counterman v. Colorado, 600 U.S. 66 (2023), the First Amendment requires that, for regulation of an alleged threat to be constitutionally permitted, it must be a "true threat" and the Government must demonstrate from the context of the statement that the author of the threat acted at least in reckless disregard of whether the subject might actually find it threatening. In this case, the NLRB has failed to plead any of the required elements required under Counterman, and even if it had, it could not prove them. The Board's attempts to regulate Apple's speech therefore exceeds the constitutional limits identified by the Supreme Court in Counterman.

8. The remedies sought are further punitive, inappropriate, and non-remedial to the extent that they seek the posting and/or circulation of notices to employees outside of the facility where the charge originated, the reading of notices, require the preparation and transmission of so-called apology letters, and to require Board agents to conduct required training of Apple personnel on Company time.

9. The Board's decision in Thryv, Inc., 372 NLRB No. 22 (2022), and the Board's request for consequential damages in its prayer for relief, violates Apple's Seventh Amendment right to a trial by jury in an Article III court.

10. The Complaint is barred inasmuch as Gjovik failed to properly serve the charges on the Respondent as required by Section 102.14(a) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.

11. Some or all of the allegations of the Complaint are barred in whole or in part because such allegations were not within the scope of the allegations made in any underlying unfair labor practice charge(s).

12. Some or all of the allegations of the Complaint are barred in whole or in part by the applicable limitations period under Section 10(b) of the NLRA.

13. No remedy is appropriate as Apple has not engaged in any unfair labor practice. Further, the remedies requested in the Complaint are punitive, inappropriate, non-remedial, violate Apple's freedom of speech rights under the First Amendment (as noted above), violate the takings clause of the Fifth Amendment (as noted above), and are beyond the authority of the Board to order.

Apple further reserves the right to amend and/or supplement its answers and affirmative defenses.

The Air District is committed to vigorously and transparently enforcing all air quality regulations to protect the health of Bay Area residents. To better inform the public of our enforcement activities, the Air District is providing this web tool so that members of the public can access information about Notices of Violation that have been issued for facilities in their communities.

The Air District conducts inspections to determine compliance with its Rules and Regulations \(/en/rules-and-compliance/current-rules\), applicable state and federal laws, and permit requirements.

When the Air District discovers an air quality violation, it issues a Notice of Violation \(/en/rules-and-compliance/compliance-assistance/notices-of-violations\), or NOV. Facilities that are issued an NOV are required to take corrective action. In addition, the Air District will assess a monetary penalty as provided for under California Health & Safety Code sections 42402 through 42403.

For significant penalties, the Air District notifies the public through press releases \(/en/news-and-events/press-releases\) and email notifications \(https://www.baaqmd.gov/contact-us/sign-up-for-information#settlement\_signup\), and by posting penalty agreements on its Penalties and Settlements \(/en/news-and-events/penalties-and-settlements\) web page.

The table on this page provides information on all NOV's issued by the Air District over the past five years. It can be used to find NOV's by facility name or location, and it specifies the regulation violated for each NOV. The current enforcement status of each NOV is also listed and will be updated as the enforcement process progresses.

The various statuses are:

Pending: The NOV has been issued, but the Air District has not yet collected a penalty or otherwise fully resolved the NOV. Note that "pending" does not necessarily mean that the violation is ongoing. If a violation has ceased, the status will still be "pending" until a penalty has been collected or the NOV has otherwise been resolved.

Resolved: The NOV has been resolved through assessment of a penalty, referral to the district attorney or the US Environmental Protection Agency for prosecution, or other final resolution.

Cancelled: Further investigation showed no violations occurred.

No Further Action (NFA): No basis for penalty action (e.g., company has gone out of business).

In cases where multiple NOV's are issued to the same facility, the Air District will sometimes resolve them together. Please note, the table does not indicate whether an NOV was resolved individually or as part of a multi-NOV resolution.
